JURYMEN FAIL OF AGREEMENT

The jury in the Indian murder case was discharged Saturday morning a little after 10 after having been out since Friday afternoon. They stood five for conviction and seven for acquittal from the first ballot and were just as far from agreeing when they were discharged as they were when they went into the jury room. It is reported that the disagreement hinged on the testimony of the Indian witnesses, some of the jury wishing to discard it altogether. The defendant in the case was Bob Parrish who was charged with the killing of Bill Beef in a drunken row near the rancheria south of town a few months ago. Both were Indians.

The case will be tried again and District Attorney Duncan is confident of securing a conviction. The jurymen in the case were: W. B. Ward, C. S. Smith, A. Davidson, John Conway, S. B. Martin, A. F. Carmichael, John Cunningham, Louis Charlton, Ed Hotell, John Brien, J. W. Kingren and George H. Bowman.

Anderson Valley Represented.

Anderson valley was represented in town strong at wool sale and among those caught in one bunch were: Maurice Prather, Carl Prather, Henry Clow, Henry Nunn, John Gossman, Frank Guntley, and Geo Johnson. Johnnie Prather was associating with them for a while just as a reminder of the old days of Anderson. They were all talking wool and hoping for thirty-cents.

SIGNED PROTEST AGAINST INSTALLING FIRE ALARM

This is the Petition That Was Presented to the Town Board and Represents an Assessed Valuation of Over $200,000 Worth of Property

☞ The gentleman who circulated this petition was told that it would have no more weight with the board than if it was a blank paper, by a member of the board.

UKIAH, CALIFORNIA, JUNE 19TH, 1905.

To the Honorable the Board of Trustees of the Town of Ukiah City, State of California:

We, the undersigned residents and taxpayers of the Town of Ukiah City earnestly protest against the appropriation at this time of funds to purchase or install a fire alarm system.

While we are in favor of improvements we feel that at present there are many other things more vitally needed by the city and its people, and realizing as we do the splendid and unselfish services which have been rendered for the town in the past by our volunteer fire company, we earnestly protest against any such expenditure of the public money at this time. And in this behalf we insist that the tax rate will not permit expenditures such as is proposed.

Respectfully submitted:

POTTER WILL CELEBRATE 4TH

Potter valley has decided to celebrate and will do the thing in proper style although they were a little late in getting the matter before the public, the order for the posters only having come Wednesday. The celebration will be held in McGee's grove where an old fashioned basket picnic will be one of the main features of the day. The literary program will commence at 11 a. m; lunch at 12:30; athletic sports at 2 p. m; growlers at 4 p. m. In the evening there will be a grand ball at the Granger's hall, the grand march being due at 8 p. m. and will be led by the handsomest couple in Potter. During the evening a lunch and refreshments will be served for the dancers. The affair is under the auspices of the Potter valley brass band and anyone who has ever been in Potter knows that the celebration will be well worth participating in. There is no more hospitable place on earth than Potter and they will be glad to have you with them.

Editor Cavanaugh Hurt.

C. J. Cavanaugh, editor of the Fort Bragg Advocate, was quite seriously injured last Sunday while riding his bicycle. For some unaccountable reason when he was crossing the Pudding creek bridge the wheel flew out from under him and he fell on his shoulder. It is not known how badly he was hurt but it is probable that his shoulder was broken. This is the second time that Mr. Cavanaugh has been seriously injured while riding a wheel.

CLOSE CALL FOR J. CARMICHAEL

Jim Carmichael, who has been peeling bark near Orrs springs, cut the third toe from his left foot last Saturday. He was alone in the woods at the time and walked four miles to the springs where he arrived in a fainting condition from loss of blood. Being unable to stop the blood flour was plastered on the wound and he was brought in a buggy to this city. It was quite a close call and it is sure that if he had been compelled to have gone much farther in search of assistance that he would have bled to death.

Studying This Watershed

Prof R. S. Holway of Berkeley was in town Saturday and left for Laughlin where he will study the formation of the large gravel wash at the summit. He is a professor of geology at Berkeley and is spending his vacation studying the Russian river water shed, starting at the mouth of the river and working all the way up the stream. As far as known this is the first study ever made of this section of the country and it will no doubt reveal some very interesting things.

Honor the Dead.

As a token of respect to the late Mrs. Charles Weinemann, all business houses closed during the funeral. The officials in the court house and some of the firms having business with the recorder's office, the Eagles and the Rebekahs sent beautiful floral offerings. The attendance at the funeral services was so great that many were unable to gain admittance to the church. The funeral was undoubtedly one of the largest ever held in this city.

Express Agent Crippled.

Express Agent Chesebro is walking on a pair of crutches this week as the result of being thrown from the express wagon at the depot last Friday. He was standing up in the wagon when it crossed the track and as the wheels struck it sideways the jar upset him. He landed on his heel and bruised it quite seriously the injury being about as serious as a break.

BILLY ORNBAUN GETS IT HARD

One of the most amusing incidents of the week occurred a few days before the trial of Bob Parish who was charged with killing Bill Beef. Some of the points in the case were a little misty and Detective Ornbaun was deputised to put Bob through a sweating process. Bill accordingly donned his best brand of Digger Indian and presented himself at the jail and was admitted by Janitor Toney. After sparring around a while and passing the time of day Bill launched out on his sweating process and fired a volley of questions regarding the murder at the Indian who apparently was paying no attention to him.

Thinking that the prisoner could not understand him Bill redoubled his efforts and produced a brand of pigeon English without a rival and threw in a few crosses between the deaf and dumb alphabet and the sign language and felt that he was making the effort of his life. The Indian straightened up and made a noise like a dictionary and interrogated Mr. Ornbaun thus: "Would you please be so kind as to inform me who I have the pleasure of addressing?" Bill was down and out and made a noise like a first reader, but Janitor Toney came to the rescue and introduced the two gentlemen in the latest London style and they acknowledged each other with the high glad.

Bill tried to recover and explain that he was merely acting in a friendly capacity and had no interest in the case. The Indian then spake as follows: "Mr. Ornbaun, I have no desire to discuss the merits or demerits of my case with anyone other than my attorneys. I assure you, however, that I am very pleased to have had the pleasure of your acquaintance." Then turning to Janitor Toney he stated: "Mr. Toney, will you please be so kind as to escort this gentleman to the door.' Bill went to the door and is now turning his attention exclusively to the capture of fellows who violate the game law.

Mrs. Frankie White of San Francisco was in town this week on land business.

AT THE MEETING OF THE TOWN TRUSTEES

The meeting of the town trustees created more than ordinary interest Monday night as it was the time for the bids for the installation of a fire-alarm system to be opened. The matter had been thoroughly exploited in the PRESS by interviews from a number of prominent citizens and the citizens as a body were against the installation of such a system at the present time. As several of the trustees had expressed the desire to comply with the wishes of the citizens in the matter a petition was circulated asking the board of trustees to reject all the bids and in a few hours many of the principal taxpayers had been secured as signers.

As the town trustees are merely supposed to be servants of the people and some of them had already expressed their desire to grant the wish of the taxpayers in the matter it was supposed that nothing further would be necessary in the matter until the bearer of the petition was accosted by one of the trustees and told that the board would pay no more attention to the petition than if it contained no signers at all. It was then that the curiosity of the taxpayers became aroused and a goodly number attended the meeting to ascertain whether or not the petition would be considered.

After the bids had been opened Trustee Lucas moved that the matter be laid over. Trustee Pemberton then offered an amendment that all bids be rejected in accordance with the petition and read the petition with the signatures attached. His amendment was seconded by Trustee Marks. On a vote being taken the amendment was lost, Trustees Marks and Pemberton voting as the people had petitioned and Trustees Lucas, Charlton and Weldon voting against it. Lucas' motion was then put and carried by the three members who voted, and the matter was laid over to an adjourned meeting next Monday night.

After the petition had been presented and read by Trustee Pemberton, Trustee Lucas stated his position in the matter and why he favored the fire alarm system. The citizens present were then called upon to address the board but no one felt called upon to respond to the invitation until Auditor Caughey arose and made a very neat and concise statement in regard to the feeling of those present He stated in substance that the taxpayers present did not feel that it was necessary to say anything in regard to the matter as their petition had been read and fully set forth their views. He also stated that the citizens present had not come to talk but were merely present to hear what the board intended to do in the matter.

A communication from the secretary of the fire company was also read in which it was stated that the firemen did not regard the firealarm system as an absolute necessity but desired it as they thought that it would render their services more effective. The length of the communication precludes its publication but this was about the main portion of it.

It is understood that the Signalophone company, the one which the fire company favored, was the highest bidder, being several hundred dollars more than the $1200, it was decided to use it for this purpose. This company was the original one in the field and was so anxious to have one of their plants installed that they paid, it is said, the expenses of two of the members of the board while in San Francisco investigating the system.

The representative of this company, it is said, stated to one of the trustees in the hearing of other parties just before he left on the train Tuesday, that he would advise the board to lay the matter over at the adjourned meeting and do nothing with it at present. The trustee says that he stated that he would be back in about six months when the public sentiment cooled down and that at that time he would be in a position to save the town about $500 on the bid. Of course he was supposed to put in the lowest bid possible at the Monday night meeting and we know of no

Cigar Factory Closed.

Mr. Edwards closed the Cuban Cigar factory this week and may go to Nevada. He was turning out a good quality of goods and it seems a shame that sufficient patronage could not have been given him to have made the venture a success as there is certainly enough cigars smoked here to keep a factory running. The people of Ukiah have not yet learned the value of keeping as many manufacturing enterprises as possible here and keeping the money at home that is otherwise sent away.

CLARKS SELL THEIR WOOL

The top notch for wool prices so far received is reported for Clark Bros. of of Cahto. Their wool was sold delivered at Sherwood for 30¼ cents. Their wool was a year's clip which gave them a little advantage as to price as it is much longer and is therefore in demand for mixing with other wool for weaving. The Clarks have one of the finest ranches in the county and are known as the scientific woolgrowers. Besides having wellbred flocks the sheep are carefully watched and any showing sign of disease are killed immediately.

Picnic at Pine Ridge.

The Pine ridge School closed Saturday after a very successful term under the guidance of Mrs. Thornberg. On Saturday afternoon the scholars and their parents enjoyed a picnic on Pepperwood flat as guests of Mrs. Thornberg. Games were indulged in by the youngsters and some of the older ones until the lunch was spread. Each one present was unanimous in declaring that more toothsome viands had never before been spread before hungry picnickers and it is certain that no lunch was ever more appreciated. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Colder, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. Loulhe, Mrs. Underhill, Mrs. Chapman and Ed Young besides the scholars of the school and their teacher.

Another Road for Santa Rosa.

According to the Santa Rosa Republican two surveys have recently been completed into Santa Rosa for the Western Pacific Railroad and it is very probable that before long that section will have a new road. It is supposed that the branch will be built from Sacramento.

An Omission.

A mistake was made last week in reporting the Jamison reunion in that the name of Mrs. William Cox was inadvertantly omitted from the list of children present. Mr. and Mrs. Cox Cox and family were there and took a prominent part in the arrangements.

Lieutenant-Colonel Schrieber will be captain of the team that will go east and Captain Lee will be the coach. The team will consist of eighteen men, including the officers.

Drowned While Bathing.

San Francisco, June 21.—Edward Butler, an athletic young man of 22 years, was found dead yesterday morning in the swimming tank at St. Ignatius college. The body was recovered by the caretaker, and, while the death is enveloped in mystery, the theory thus far accepted is that Butler entered the tank alone, was seized with cramps and perished before he could even make an outcry.

Verdict of Guilty.

Martinez, June 15.—The jury in the case of John Zimmerman, accused of robbing the messengers of the Central Bank of Oakland of $10,000 March 10 last, came into court yesterday at 1 o'clock p. m. with a verdict of guilty. July 10 was set as the date of sentence, but it is expected that the case will be appealed and that Zimmerman will not begin to do time for his crime for some months to come.

Americans Ordered Out.

Che Foo, June 20.—American and European firms still in Port Arthur have been notified by the Japanese authorities to depart and to remove their merchandise. Many of the firms are now arranging to charter steamers for that purpose.

Correggio and His Life.

Little is known of Correggio, which would argue that he was of a retiring disposition. He was born in the little town of Correggio, twenty-four miles from Parma. In the latter city he was educated, but in his seventeenth year an outbreak of the plague drove his family to Mantua. By 1514 he was back in Parma. For some years he worked here and painted many famous pictures. It may have been because of grief over the death of his young wife, but at the age of thirty-six, indifferent to fame and fortune, he retired to the little town where he was born. All that is known regarding his death is the date, March 5, 1534.—Charles H. Caffin in St. Nicholas.

DON'T RECOGNIZE DEFEAT.

Prove Your Manhood by Battling on Bravely After Reverses.

After 12,000 of Napoleon's soldiers had been overwhelmed by the advance of 75,000 Austrian troops he addressed them thus: "I am displeased with you. You have evinced neither discipline nor valor. You have allowed yourselves to be driven from positions where a handful of resolute men might have arrested an army. You are no longer French soldiers. Chief of staff, cause it to be written on their standards, 'They are no longer of the army of Italy.'"

In tears the battered veterans replied: "We have been misrepresented. The soldiers of the enemy were three to one. Try us once more. Place us in the post of danger and see if we do not belong to the army of Italy." In the next battle they were placed in the van, and they made good their pledge by rolling back the great Austrian army.

He is a pretty poor sort of man who loses courage and fears to face the world just because he has made a mistake or a slip somewhere, because his business has failed, because his property has been swept away by some general disaster or because of other trouble impossible for him to avert.

This is the test of your manhood. How much is there left in you after you have lost everything outside of yourself? If you lie down now, throw up your hands and acknowledge yourself worsted there is not much in you. But if with heart undaunted and face turned forward you refuse to give up or to lose faith in yourself, if you scorn to beat a retreat, you will show that the man left in you is bigger than your loss, greater than your cross and larger than any defeat.

"I know no such unquestionable badge and ensign of a sovereign mind," said Emerson, "as that tenacity of purpose which, through all changes of companions or parties or fortunes, changes never, bates no jot of heart or hope, but wearies out opposition and arrives at its port."

It is men like Ulysses S. Grant, who, whether in the conflict of opposing armies on the battlefield or in the wear and tear of civic strife, fighting against reverses, battling for a competence for his loved ones, even while the hand of death lay chill upon him, "bates no jot of heart or hope," that wring victory from the most forbidding circumstances. It is men like Napoleon, who refuse to recognize defeat, who declare that "impossible" is not in their vocabularies, that accomplish things.—Success.

Former Experience Painful.

The young woman had just said no.

"Have you ever been rejected before, Mr. Huddleston?" she asked sympathizingly and almost tenderly.

"Once," he said, a spasm of pain contorting his features at the recollection, "by a life insurance company. I tell you it hurt—that time."—Chicago Tribune.

THE GREAT TITIAN.

His Was an All Embracing Genius, Courtly, Serene, Majestic.

At once a genius and a favorite of fortune, Titian moved through his long life of pomp and splendor serene and self contained. He was of old and noble family, born at Pieve, in the mountain district of Cadore. By the time that he was eleven years old his father, Gregorio di Conte Vecelli, recognized that he was destined to be a painter and sent him to Venice, where he became the pupil first of Bellini and then of the great artist Giorgione. From the first indeed he enjoyed every privilege that an artist of his time could need. The doge and council of Venice recognized his ability, as did the dukes of Ferrara and Mantua. As the years went on kings, popes and emperors were his friends and patrons. In his home at Biri, a suburb of Venice, from which in one direction the snowclad Alps are visible and in the other the soft luxuriance of the Venetian lagoon, he maintained a princely household, associating with the greatest and most accomplished men of Venice, working on until he had reached the age of ninety-nine years. Even then it was no ordinary ailment, but the visitation of the plague, that carried him off, and such was the honor in which he was held that the law against the burial of the plague stricken in a church was overruled in this case, and he was laid in the tomb which he had prepared for himself in the great Church of the Frari.

No artist's life was so completely and sustainedly superb, and such, too, is the character of his work. He was great in portraiture, in landscape, in the painting of religious and mythological subjects. In any one of these departments others have rivaled him, but his glory is that he attained to the highest rank in all. He was an artist of universal gifts. His was an all embracing genius, courtly, serene, majestic. He viewed the splendor of the world in a big, healthful, ample way and represented it with the glowing brush of a supreme master of color.—Charles H. Caffin in St. Nicholas.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER CHARGE.

Man Who Kills Two Men Escapes on Plea of Self-Defense.

Bakersfield, June 21.—Newt Walker, who has been on trial for killing Dave Burton, has been acquitted and is now a free man. Walker shot and killed Burton and James Bagsby in a street duel at Havilah last April as the result of a long-existing feud between them.

The jury held that he had a right to kill them as long as his life was in danger. The charge of killing Bagsby against him has been dismissed.

One of the singular scenes in the court room was when Mrs. Burton, the widow of the murdered man, congratulated Walker and told him that she had been for him all the time.

HOPYARD WILL BE IRRIGATED

John Eldred reports that he has commenced irrigation on the old Pitner ranch and that he is now able to pump 300 gallons a minute day and night and that he will shortly have the plant pumping out over four hundred gallons. The pump is of the centrifugal type and is driven by a gas engine. The whole pumping plant is mounted on wheels and can be moved from one part of the ranch to another.

It is also intended to move the plant from the Pitner ranch to the Douglass ranch and thus irrigate both ranches with the same pump. The Pitner ranch lies close to the river and all that is necessary to secure water is to dig a well a few feet deep and an abundance of water flows in through the gravel. The lift for the water is thus very short.

This is the first time that the irrigating experiment has ever been tried on hops in this county but there is no doubt as to its practicability. There are about forty acres of new hops on the Pitner ranch that will be irrigated this year and Mr. Eldred states that he expects to get at least $1500 worth of beer blossoms off this place where ordinarily the yield for the first year would be merely nominal.

In addition to this heavy yield the vines will be in a much better condition than they would otherwise. According to the degree of success of the plan the pumping plant will be enlarged and it is possible that the old hops may also be irrigated. The result is being watched with interest by the other hopmen of the valley and several pumps may be put in in the near future.

More About Wool.

In regard to the prices paid for wool the following is submitted by William Ryan and shows that wool has reached fifty cents:

In 1872 wool was sold in Cloverdale late in the fall at fifty cents and over a pound Perhaps in the following spring at the same rate. The world's wool market warehouses of Boston with their contents were destroyed by fire Nov. 9, 1872. From that came the fifty cent rate. Don't know war time prices. On one of my return trips from the east to Cloverdale I reached that burg in the latter part of November, 1872. While in that hamlet (then) a brother-in-law, with two other friends, G. J. McGimsey and James O. McSpadden arrived here with their wool which went like hot cakes at fifty cents.

Our Correspondents

ALBION, June 16—A very pretty, though quiet home wedding took place Sunday, June 11th, at 4 p. m. at the residence of Mr and Mrs. Chas. Elsasser when their niece, Miss Mamie Oldham was united in marriage to Chas. C. Vaughn of Missouri. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. L. Goff. The cheerful parlor was tstefully decorated with ferns, roses and other flowers.

Shortly after the arrival of the last guest the beautiful bride appeared leaning on the arm of the man of her choice. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Oldham acted as bridesmaid and best man. The bride was attired in a costume of tan colored cashmere trimmed in white silk, while over all fell the bridal veil in graceful folds. The orange blossoms that she wore were not more fair than the brow they adorned and in her hand she held a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a suit of white organdy and carried a bouquet of pink roses while the groom and best man were attired in black dress suits.

Little Emma Elsasser acting as ring bearer looked handsome in a suit of white.

Only the relatives and intimate friends were present. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served. The tables tastefully decorated with flowers, were heaped with an endless variety of appetizing edibles. The large, rich, cakes were pleasing to both sight and taste. The newly wedded couple were the recipients of many useful presents.

The happy couple are well known and highly respected here and around Ukiah as the bride at one time held a position in the telephone office at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn will reside in this vicinity for a while but will make their home in the east. The good wishes of the community at large are lavished upon the happy couple. Many a silent prayer for their future prosperity ascended from the hearts of the guests to the throne of Him who holds our lives in His hands.

CHRISTINE, June 16.—A few notes from Christine may not be uncalled for.

We hear the steam whistle at the Wendling mill now, every morning, noon and night in anticipation of the new railroad that is moving on toward that incipient town.

A Mr. Wendling and the new superintendent, Mr. Stearns, passed through the valley the other day, coming up to the new town. Everything points to a very busy season.

A. N. Thomas from San Francisco was here the other day buying up bark. Owing to the very late cold cold season bark is late and slow in peeling. Men think it will peel later in the season. More bark peelers at $40 and $50 and board are wanted right away to help get out the bark.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK & POULTRY MEDICINE

This great stock medicine is a money saver for stock raisers. It is a medicine, not a cheap food or condition powder. Though put up in coarser form than Thedford's Black-Draught, renowned for the cure of the digestion troubles of persons, it has the same qualities of invigorating digestion, stirring up the torpid liver and loosening the constipated bowels for all stock and poultry. It is carefully prepared and its action is so healthful that stock grow and thrive with an occasional dose in their food. It cures hog cholera and makes hogs grow fat. It cures chicken cholera and roup and makes hens lay. It cures constipation, distemper and colds in horses, murrain in cattle, and makes a draught animal do more work for the food consumed. It gives animals and fowls of all kinds new life. Every farmer and raiser should certainly give it a trial.

It costs 25c. a can and saves ten times its price in profit.

PITTSBURG, KAS., March 25, 1904.
I have been using your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine on my stock for some time. I have used all kinds of stock food but I have found that yours is the best for my purpose.

MINISTER BOWEN IS DISMISSED

PRESIDENT SEVERELY SCORES CONDUCT OF THE DIPLOMAT.

Says He Spent Months Hunting Scandal to Involve Enemy—Loomis Was Indiscreet.

Washington, June 21.—The dismissal of Herbert W. Bowen, for some years United States minister to Venezuela, and the exoneration of Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Loomis of the allegations brought against him by Bowen, are the outcome of the controversy which has attracted wide attention for many months past. This disposition of the case is made by President Roosevelt in a letter addressed to Secretary Taft, just made public, approving Taft' report on his findings and conclusions in the case.

The president scathingly arraigns Minister Bowen, declaring that his conduct is "especially reprehensible;" that Bowen asked one of his witnesses to enter the employ of a certain company for the purpose of, "in plain words, of stealing" documents which he hoped might incriminate Loomis, and that Bowen "has evidently for many months—indeed, for the last two years—devoted himself to hunting up scandal and gossip until it became complete disloyalty" to the country he represented.

The president says he had hoped to promote Bowen, as during much of his service he had done good work, but that his usefulness in the diplomatic service is now at an end. The president adds that he would direct that Bowen's resignation be requested but for his statement that he would consider a resignation an admission of misconduct, and the dismissal is therefore ordered.

The letter quotes correspondence and testimony. The president states that it appears that Bowen, while minister secured the publication of attacks on Loomis, and furnished to the press documents pending before the state department for approval, and that his explanation is inexcusable and shows his "entire unfitness' for the service. Even if Loomis had been guilty, says the president, Bowen's conduct would be unpardonable. This letter quoted certain correspondence and testimony.

The report of Secretary Taft on the case on which the president's action is based is a voluminous document, reviewing the charges and the evidence taken.

In this report Secretay Taft says there was nothing dishonorable in the transactions in which Loomis figured, but that he was indiscreet. The report says that Loomis was not justified in becoming personally interested in any of the schemes, either with a mere nominal interest or substantial interest. He holds, however, that Loomis has been "most cruelly slandered;" commends him for the self-restraint with which he has met the charges, and points out that Loomis' bitter experience in this case makes it unnecessary to point out the moral that a minister cannot afford in the country to which he is accredited to make personal investments, etc.

RAFT TO CROSS OCEAN

ROBERTSON RAFT COMPANY ARE PREPARING TO TAKE PILES TO THE ORIENT.

San Francisco, June 21.—A log raft containing 10,000,000 feet of spars and piling is to be towed across the Pacific to Shanghai during the summer. This is the gigantic plan of a new company just organized under the laws of British Columbia, and which is to be a branch of the Robertson Raft company of this city. At the head of the concern is H. R. Robertson, who is said to have made vast sums by his success in rafting lumber from northern points to San Francisco.

Except for an accident to the first one or two rafts, which broke loose, all the huge rafts have been brought safely to port. But they are nevertheless looked upon with considerable fear by seafaring men and shipowners, who regard the bulky rafts as positive menaces which should be prohibited from going to sea.

The Robertson people, despite this opposition, appear determined to extend their field of operations, and will send to Shanghai—or at least start it in that direction—a larger raft of big logs than has ever yet been put together. From present plans it will be towed by one or more of the most powerful tugboats of San Francisco, accompanied by a collier or oil steamer with fuel for the tugs.

SALOON MEN WIN IN EUREKA

A. W. Torrey Elected Mayor by an Overwhelming Majority.

Eureka, June 20.—One of the most hotly contested mayoralty contests in the history of this city ended last night with the election of A. W. Torrey by an overwhelming majority. The fight was made on the saloon question. W. S. Clark, the present mayor, was backed up by the churches and the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Torrey was supported by the saloon men and most of the business men. A house-to-house canvass was made previous to the election.

The saloon men made no fuss, but worked hard, and secured an overwhelming victory. The total vote cast was 2121, Torrey winning by a majority of 5 to 2..

The Socialist vote was only about 100. Judge Mendley was elected and the initiative and referendum carried by a few votes over two-thirds.

The city was in gala attire last night, and the streets were crowded with a cheering, shouting throng. The town is wide open.

A singular fatality attended the election. Nels A. Hansen dropped dead after preparing a ballot and just as he was about to put it in the box.

GRASSHOPPERS CLING TO AUTOS.

Pest in the Northern Counties Becoming Serious.

Marysville, June 19.—Grasshoppers are so numerous in Sutter, Butte and Yuba counties that they cling to buggies, wagons and even automobiles and bicycles passing along the roads. Autos coming into town during the past few days have had hundreds of them clinging to the wheels and bodies of the cars.

The insects are destroying everything green in the infected districts, attacking even the orange groves. In some places green almonds on the trees have been eaten. The damage will be severe, but steps are being taken, under the department of agriculture, to prevent general devastation.

Such great numbers of grasshoppers in so many localities have never been seen here before.

WILL ANSWER TAFT.

Anti-Japanese League Will Hold Big Public Meeting.

San Francisco, June 21.—The Japanese and Korean Exclusion league is planning for a public meeting, to be held on Monday evening, at which addresses will be made by O. A. Tveitmoe, president of the league; Congressman Livernash, P. H. McCarthy, president of the Building Trades Council, and Hon. Frank McGowan.

A committee has also been appointed to answer Secretary Taft's statement on the Chinese exclusion law, the membership being C. F. Butte, C. F. Knight and James Graham.

Delegate Graham has submitted a report which shows the number of Japanese which entered this country during the year 1900. There were 86,689 laborers, 2851 merchants, 554 students and 52 on official duty.

Cuban Patriot Is Dead.

Havana, June 19.—General Maximo Gomez, the Cuban patriot and soldier, is dead. General Gomez, who was born in Boni, Santo Domingo, in 1831, was commander-in-chief of the Cuban army during the war with Spain from 1895 to 1898, and when the Americans landed in Cuba in 1898 he co-operated with them. He was at one time suggested as a candidate for the presidency of the Cuban republic.

PHILADELPHIA STOCK EXCHANGE UNEARTHS WHOLESALE FORGERIES.

Philadelphia, June 21.—The Philadelphia stock exchange has sent a note to its members warning them against negotiating stock certificates bearing the name of Benjamin H. Gaskill or Benjamin H. Gaskill & Co. Back of this is said to be a sensational story of forgery and raising of certificates involving hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The discovery of irregularity was made by E. C. Miller & Co., bankers and brokers. Benjamin H. Gaskill, senior member of the first named firm, died three weeks ago. One of the customers transferred his account to Miller & Co., and in the account was a certificate of 100 shares of Philadelphia Traction company worth about $10,000.

It subsequently developed that the certificate had been raised from one share. The discovery created a sensation in financial circles, as it is reported that many spurious transactions of the same kind have been made. One bank is said to have loaned $225,000 on raised certificates. The administrators of the Gaskill estate are making an investigation and a statement is promised.

Thousands of Shriners.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., June 21.—The annual gathering of the Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine, opened here yesterday. Thousands of Shriners from all sections of the United States and Canada are here. Nearly 2000 Shriners took part in the parade.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.
